BULLET 11 OF 31: GUN VIOLENCE PROTECTIVE ORDERS

Gun violence protective order laws can prevent gun tragedies before they occur. They allow family members and law enforcement officers to request removal of a person’s firearms if he or she poses an imminent danger to self or others. A bill to do that is pending in the Illinois Legislature. Contact your representatives and tell them to support Illinois HR 2354, or contact your own state representatives to support gun violence restraining order (GVRO) legislation.

Take action at 31bullets.suntimes.com/11

There are an estimated 10 billion bullets sold in the U.S. every year. That’s 31 bullets for every man, woman and child. The Chicago Sun-Times is arming people with knowledge, education and social ammunition to fight gun violence. 31 bullets to counter the negative effects of the actual bullets.